Intoxicating Brittany In A Small Group

Join me in our women only small group 7 day tour of a life time creating memories with like minded travellers who also enjoy the good life and a genteel pace when travelling.

After living in a farming village in Brittany part time over the last 10 years and exploring the picturesque coastline, ancient towns and historical sites that make up the wonder of Brittany, it's my delight to share these with you.

Wandering cobblestone streets, enjoying crepes and cider, walking along the sandy beach paths and visiting fresh food markets, and generally soaking up all that is the Breton way of life, is what we do at A French Collection tours.

Iconic locations, little known seaside harbours, markets, cozy restaurants and memorable dining experiences coupled with accommodation in beachside hotels and homely boutique hotels, you'll wish you never had to say goodbye to Brittany.
